Background on Vincent Cleary

Vincent J. Cleary is a retired Professor of Classics at the University of Massachusetts Amherst, where he taught until 1997. With a particular interest in Latin poetry, Cleary is both a journalist and writer. Most of his writings reflect his love for the Pioneer Valley; Cleary was most commonly published in the Hampshire Gazette, although he also submitted articles to larger magazines and newspapers.

Scope of collection

The Cleary Papers are comprised of articles that Cleary wrote for magazines and newspapers such as Hampshire Life, and narratives relating to the town of Amherst for his book Amherst, Massachusetts 01002: One of the Best Small Towns in America. A bound copy of the book is included with the collection, as well as narratives and Cleary's research materials. The collection contains complete newspapers and magazines and copies of Cleary's articles (his earlier work is centered around Virgil's The Aeneid). Also included among the papers are unpublished writings, such as the papers of Cleary's last class at UMass, and an array of VHS and cassette tapes with copies of his lectures and class presentations.
