Read collection overview

Priest, lawyer, activist, war veteran, devoted father, and music lover Nigel Lyon Andrews lived a full and varied life. Born in New England May 24, 1921, he attended Yale University before becoming an Air Corps Captain in World War II. After his service, Nigel returned to New England to earn his law degree before being called to priesthood; a calling he pursued until his retirement and death in 2006. His wife, Constance Doane Young Andrews, born June 1, 1921, was a dedicated and passionate musician, choral director, organist, sailor, spouse, mother, grand and great-grandmother, and mentor who was active in her local communities before her own passing on June 17, 2018.

The collection spans almost 200 years and includes a variety of other family members and their stories and effects. The bulk of the collection is correspondence and family papers/materials such as diaries, notebooks, legal, work, and school papers, and photographs.

Background on Andrews Family

Nigel Lyon Andrews was born May 24, 1921 as the eldest son of Paul Shipman Andrews and Hannah Sargent Sessions Andrews of the Porter-Phelps-Huntington line. He had one younger brother, William (Bill) Shankland Andrews. Nigel attended Pebble Hill School in Syracuse, New York before moving to St. George's School in Newport, Rhode Island in 1939. He then attended Yale University where he met and married his wife Connie, who was receiving her education in music, and they both graduated with their bachelor's degrees in 1943. In the early 1940s, Nigel served in the Army Air Corps during World War II, later earning the title of Captain for his efforts. After the war, Nigel returned to school to earn a law degree at Syracuse University and practice law within Syracuse including a two-year position as law clerk to Judge Edmund Lewis of the New York State Court of Appeals in Albany. It was also during his time in Syracuse that he helped found the Syracuse Friends of Chamber Music along with his wife Connie, and with violinist Louis Krasner. In 1953, Nigel left the field of law to enter priesthood and attended Berkeley Divinity School in New Haven, Connecticut to then become the first vicar and later rector of St. Ann's Church in Old Lyme, Connecticut from 1954 to 1962. Afterwards, he became rector of Trinity Church in Concord, Massachusetts from 1962-1979, then rector of Trinity Church in Concord, Massachusetts from 1962-1979 during a turbulent time of social unrest. Despite criticism, Nigel along with other pastors, attended the civil rights march from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama. Finally, he was a rector of St. Peter's By-the-Sea in Narragansett, Rhode Island before officially retiring in 1987 to Jamestown, Rhode Island. In retirement he continued to serve as an assisting clergyman at Trinity Church until his passing on January 19, 2006.

Nigel married Constance (Connie) Doane Young Andrews of Newport, Rhode Island in 1942 in the chapel of St. George's School. Connie was born June 1, 1921 the daughter of Dr. John Albion Young and Ellen Spooner Gladding Young, both of whom have well-documented genealogies going back to the Mayflower colonists and beyond into English history. Connie was an avid sailor, and even survived a shipwreck from the 1938 New England Hurricane. After graduating with a bachelor's in music with many prizes for her work, she began her career as a concert pianist and played under the distinguished conductor Dimitri Mitropoulos, who later did concerts for the Syracuse Friends of Chamber Music. Connie also served as a church organist and choir director in Syracuse and later in Old Lyme, Concord, and Saunderstown, Rhode Island. When she and Nigel moved to Rhode Island she was appointed conductor and artistic director of the Swanhurst Choral Society in Newport, where she worked for 15 years before retiring. She also served on several diocesan music commissions, organized choir tours to the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City from Old Lyme, and to the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C. from Concord. She also organized presentations of a series of chancel dramas in Concord and a Revels performance in Newport.

Nigel and Connie had three sons, Richard (Pete) Nigel Lyon Andrews, Paul Shipman Andrews II, and John Albion Young Andrews. Pete married Hannah Page Wheeler and they had two children, Sarah Huntington Andrews and Christopher Page Monteith Andrews. Chris married Emily Harville of Madison, Wisconsin and had three children, Charles Nigel Harville Andrews, James Gladding Cornell Andrews, and Elizabeth Abigail Andrews.

Nigel's parents, Paul Shipman Andrews and Hannah Sargent Sessions Andrews, also encompass a significant portion of this collection of family papers. His father Paul (also referenced as PSA in the collection) was the only child of Justice William Shankland Andrews of the New York State Court of Appeals. He was a military officer during World War I who then earned his law degree and served as Dean of the Syracuse University Law School for 26 years. His Deanship was interrupted by a return to the military service for World War II for which he spent time abroad in North Africa and Italy. He won a variety of medals and citations that are included in the collection. He also became an active member in the World Association of World Federalists and the United World Federalists, and developed multiple "Neutrals for Peace" proposals which envisioned an alliance of the non-aligned nations to ease tensions between the U.S. and Communist powers. The comprehensive plan was known as "The Great Proposal". It was during this time that he met with a variety of "neutral" nations leaders personally through the 1950's. After the death of his first wife Hannah Sargent Sessions, Paul met his second wife Elizabeth Peterson Andrews abroad and married 1963 - shortly before his death a few years later in 1967. Paul's mother, Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews, was a well-known 19th century author, with her most well-known book being The Perfect Tribute which was a retelling of the story of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. Paul's father was Chief Judge Charles Andrews of the New York State Court of Appeals.

Other noted figures include Connie's three older siblings: John (Jack) Albion Young Jr. who was a petroleum geologist; Marjorie Young Burgess Wolff who was the first female naval architect in America - her first husband was W. Starling Burgess, a yacht designer, and her second husband was Paul Anthony Wolff who was one of the inventors of the offshore oil-drilling rig whose design can be found in the Smithsonian; and Richard Cady Young who was a naval officer and later a businessman.

Scope of collection

This collection includes the papers of Nigel and Connie Andrews as papers related to Nigel's father and mother, and some related to Connie's family. There are also papers related to other descendants of the Porter-Phelps-Huntington line such as correspondence from Elizabeth Fisher Wheeler Thompson (b. 1887), and her husband John (Jack) Fairfield Thompson (b. 1883); these letters are primarily from around the years of Jack's proposal to Bessie in 1911.

The Andrews Family papers are primarily composed of correspondence between, from, and to family members. The bulk of letters are regarding Nigel Lyon Andrews and Constance Doane Young Andrews and follow their lives, with additional correspondence surrounding their parents, siblings, coworkers, and related family members. Other materials include Army papers (for both Nigel Lyon Andrews as well as his father, Paul Shipman Andrews), a variety of photographs, diaries, school and work papers, photo albums and scrapbooks, genealogy information, newspapers, and publications relating to the family. There are a few sermons in the collection as well by Nigel Lyon Andrews and Frederic Dan Huntington. While the span of the collection ranges from 1823 to 2018, the bulk of the papers are from the 1940s to 1970s. There are exceptions to this such as Elizabeth Fisher Wheeler Thompson and John (Jack) Fairfield Thompson's correspondence centering around 1911.

Series descriptions

Series 1. Correspondence

1864-2011

7 boxes

Primarily correspondence of Nigel Lyon Andrews and Constance Doane Young Andrews, and further letters with Nigel's father, Paul Shipman Andrews, and his mother, Hannah Sargent Sessions Andrews as they all wrote to each other. Elizabeth Fisher Wheeler Thompson and John (Jack) Fairfield Thompson have multiple letters mostly from 1911 before their marriage between one another. In addition with letters to and from Constance's parents, Ellen Spooner Gladding Young and Dr. John Albion Young, there are also letters going to and from notable names such as Ruth Huntington Sessions, Nigel's brother William (Bill) Shankland Andrews, and Constance's sister, Marjorie Young Burgess Wolff.

In some cases, the letters are organized by who they are designated to. If a letter was sent to Nigel Lyon Andrews, his name would be the title of the folder and if the sender is known it is listed after a colon like so - "Andrews, Nigel Lyon: Andrews, Constance Doane Young". Alternatively, if a group of letters are all regarding the same topic or specific time period they will be listed after the colon like so - "Andrews, Constance Doane Young: Wedding" or "Andrews, Constance Doane Young: Father's Death". If the correspondent is not clearly identified, folders are titled by subject. All boxes are organized alphabetically and then chronologically.

Series 2. Personal and Family Papers

1873-2015 (bulk 1936-2006)

7 boxes

The Personal and Family series includes its oldest item, a book from 1783 that was a gift to the family, to its newest which are family photographs from 2015. This portion of the collection includes a number of personal diaries, army papers, piano works, journals, newspaper clippings, holiday cards, genealogy records, work and legal documents, and published works by or relating to the family.

Note that similarly to the correspondence titles, the names of those who are tied to a work will be on the folder accompanied by a name of any published works or significant time periods. An example is "Andrews, Nigel Lyon: Berkeley Divinity School" and "Andrews, Constance and Nigel: 50th Wedding Anniversary Papers". Note that fragile books, scrapbooks, and bibles are housed in boxes 21-24; please consult with an archivist about accessing these materials.

Series 3. Sermons

1842-1961 (1842-1900)

5 boxes

The majority of this series has been organized chronologically as opposed to by creator, although sermons by Frederic Dan Huntington have been identified. The rest of the sermons are most likely by Nigel Lyon Andrews. These sermons cover over a century, with the earliest dating from the mid-1800's, and the last from 2002.

Series 4. Photographs

1842-1961 (1842-1900)

6 boxes

This series consists of photographs, negatives, and scrapbooks and scrapbook pages accumulated by the Andrews family and related families over a century. There are cabinet cards, color photographs, and negatives. Most photographs depict individuals who have been identified by name, but several folders of family photos have been grouped together. In cases where individuals could not be identified, these are sorted under "unidentified." Please consult with an archivist about accessing negatives.
